

Chapter 4: English Communication

Class 18 – Public Speaking, Role Play & Confidence Building

Learning Objectives

After completing this lesson, students will be able to:

- Understand the importance of public speaking.
 - Speak confidently in front of an audience.
 - Use proper voice modulation, body language, and eye contact.
 - Participate actively in role plays and group discussions.
 - Deliver short speeches with confidence.
 - Develop leadership, communication, and presentation skills.
-

Introduction

Public speaking is the ability to speak confidently in front of an audience. It helps students express their thoughts, share ideas, and communicate effectively. Through role play and classroom presentations, students develop confidence, improve pronunciation, and overcome stage fear.

Good public speaking is an important life skill that helps in school, competitions, and future careers.

What is Public Speaking?

Public speaking is the act of speaking clearly and confidently before a group of people to share information, ideas, or opinions.

Importance of Public Speaking

- Builds self-confidence.
- Improves communication skills.
- Develops leadership qualities.
- Enhances speaking and listening abilities.

- Helps students express ideas clearly.
 - Prepares students for competitions and presentations.
-

Qualities of a Good Speaker

A good speaker should:

- Speak clearly and confidently.
 - Maintain eye contact.
 - Use simple and correct language.
 - Stand with good posture.
 - Speak at a suitable pace.
 - Listen respectfully to others.
 - Smile and be polite.
-

Voice Modulation

Voice modulation means changing your voice to make your speech interesting and easy to understand.

Tips for Voice Modulation

- Speak loudly enough for everyone to hear.
 - Do not speak too fast.
 - Pause after important points.
 - Change your tone to express emotions.
 - Pronounce words clearly.
-

Body Language

Body language includes facial expressions, posture, and gestures that support your speech.

Good Body Language

- Stand straight.
- Smile naturally.
- Use simple hand gestures.

- Avoid crossing your arms.
 - Face the audience.
 - Stay calm and relaxed.
-

Eye Contact

Eye contact helps connect with your audience.

Benefits of Eye Contact

- Builds confidence.
- Keeps the audience interested.
- Shows honesty and respect.
- Improves communication.

Tips

- Look at different people in the audience.
 - Do not keep looking at the floor.
 - Maintain a friendly expression.
-

Role Play

Role play is an activity where students act as different characters in real-life situations.

Benefits of Role Play

- Improves speaking confidence.
 - Develops communication skills.
 - Encourages teamwork.
 - Improves problem-solving skills.
 - Builds creativity.
-

Role Play Situations

Situation 1: At the School Library

Student: Good morning, Ma'am. May I borrow this book?

Librarian: Yes. Please return it within one week.

Student: Thank you, Ma'am.

Situation 2: At the Classroom

Teacher: Good morning, students.

Students: Good morning, Teacher.

Teacher: Who has completed today's homework?

Student: I have completed it, Ma'am.

Situation 3: At a Grocery Store

Customer: Good evening. I would like one packet of milk, please.

Shopkeeper: Here you are.

Customer: Thank you.

Shopkeeper: You're welcome.

Speaking on Simple Topics

Students prepare a 1–2 minute speech on simple topics.

Suggested Topics

- My Family
- My School

- My Best Friend
 - My Favorite Teacher
 - My Favorite Festival
 - My Favorite Book
 - My Hobby
 - Importance of Cleanliness
 - Save Water
 - Trees Are Our Friends
-

Example Speech

My School

Good morning everyone. My name is Aarav. Today I am going to speak about my school. My school is Green Park School. It has a beautiful campus and helpful teachers. We have a library, computer lab, and playground. I enjoy learning with my friends. I love my school because it helps me become a good student and a responsible citizen. Thank you.

Group Discussion

Students discuss a simple topic in small groups.

Discussion Topics

- Why should we keep our school clean?
- How can we save water?
- Why is reading important?
- How does technology help students?
- Why should we plant trees?

Discussion Rules

- Listen to others.
 - Wait for your turn.
 - Speak politely.
 - Respect different opinions.
 - Encourage everyone to participate.
-

Presentation Skills

A good presentation should include:

- Greeting the audience.
- Introducing the topic.
- Explaining the main points.
- Giving an example.
- Ending with a thank you.

Presentation Tips

- Speak clearly.
 - Stand confidently.
 - Maintain eye contact.
 - Use simple language.
 - Smile while presenting.
-

Asking and Answering Questions

Examples

Question: What is your favorite hobby?

Answer: My favorite hobby is reading storybooks.

Question: Why is public speaking important?

Answer: Public speaking helps us express our ideas confidently.

Audience Etiquette

Students should:

- Listen carefully.
- Do not interrupt.
- Encourage the speaker.
- Clap after each presentation.
- Ask questions politely.

Overcoming Stage Fear

Confidence Tips

- Practice your speech several times.
- Take a deep breath before speaking.
- Speak slowly and clearly.
- Focus on your message.
- Smile and stay positive.
- Remember that making mistakes is part of learning.

Did You Know?

- Regular speaking practice improves confidence and communication skills.
- Eye contact helps build trust with the audience.
- Great speakers become better through practice.
- Listening carefully is an important part of communication.

Points to Remember

- Speak clearly and confidently.
- Maintain eye contact with your audience.
- Use appropriate body language and gestures.
- Listen respectfully during discussions.
- Practice speaking every day to improve confidence.
- Always be polite and respectful while communicating.